The screenshot shows a Google search for 'discord' on a laptop. The search bar at the top contains the word 'discord'. Below the search bar, the results show 'About 37,20,00,000 results (0.73 seconds)'. The first result is 'https://discord.com' with the title 'Discord | Your Place to Talk and Hang Out'. A red arrow points to this title. Below the title, the description reads: 'Discord is the easiest way to talk over voice, video, and text. Talk, chat, hang out, and stay close with your friends and communities. You've visited this page 2 times. Last visit: 14/7/21'. There are also links for 'Download', 'Support', 'Nitro', and 'Invalid Invite Links'. On the right side of the search results, there is a card for 'Discord' software, featuring the Discord logo and a description: 'Discord is a VoIP, instant messaging and digital distribution platform designed for creating communities. Users communicate with voice calls, video calls, text messaging, media and files in private chats or as part of communities called "servers".'
